Parental Consent

I give permission for my child to go to the Youth for Christ snow retreat for the weekend of Feb. 26-28, 2010. In case of emergency, I hereby give Youth for Christ the permission to act in my behalf in seeking emergency treatment for my child in the event that such treatment is deemed necessary by them or their assigned staff, volunteer and church partner personnel. I also give permission to those administering emergency treatment to do so using those measures deemed necessary. I also give permission to their staff and volunteers, any health care providers and emergency medical professionals to share my child's health information with each other in order to provide emergency medical treatment. By doing this I realize I am waiving my child's privacy rights according to the HIPAA Act.

Furthermore, I hereby release Youth for Christ including their trustees, employees and agents, from liability, even involving negligence for my child's physical injury, including death or illness while at camp, including any travel to and from the camp or trip activities, in consideration for this privilege. I will assume the risk associated therewith, whether known or unknown to me at this time. This release is also intended to include all claims of my family, estate, heirs, personal representatives or assigns.

I have read and understand this Release prior to signing it and I am aware that by signing this Release I am waiving certain legal rights I/my family may have against Youth for Christ.
